

A BILL

FOR AN ACT DEFINING THE NUMBER OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF IOWA:

SECTION 1. In addition to the presiding officers, there shall be elected at the opening
2 of each regular session of the general assembly, officers and employes as follows, viz:

3 For the senate, one secretary, two assistant secretaries, one journal clerk, one engrossing
4 clerk, one enrolling clerk, one file clerk, one bill clerk, one sergeant-at-arms, one doorkeeper,
5 seven assistant doorkeepers, two janitors, thirteen committee clerks, one of whom shall have
6 charge of each committee room and act as clerk for all committees meeting therein, and one
7 shall be for extra service at the direction of the secretary; and six pages.

8 For the house, one chief clerk, two assistant clerks, two journal clerks, one engrossing
9 clerk, one enrolling clerk, one file clerk, one bill clerk, one sergeant-at-arms, one doorkeeper,
10 seven assistant doorkeepers, three janitors, fourteen committee clerks, one of whom shall have 11 charge of each committee room and be clerk for all committees meeting therein, and one shall 12 be assigned for extra service as may be needed, by the direction of the clerk of the house; and 13 eight pages.

14 For both houses jointly, one postmaster, one assistant postmaster, and one mail carrier.

SEC. 2. There shall be no other employes except by authority of a concurrent resolution
2 of any general assembly agreeing to the same, excepting, further, that each house may pro-
3 vide for such service of chaplain as it may determine.